Litchfield
Connecticut –

My dear Mr. Raemaekers:

We were fortunate enough last winter to see an exhibition of your wonderful cartoons, and I have thought many times since of them. May I give you the

for your visit in America.

I am, sincerely yours

enclosed verses as a very small part of the appreciation we all feel for your work? I only wish they were better.

The beautiful pity you depicted in the face of "England" is something one does not wish to forget.

With all good wishes
