A Souvenir

OF THE LUNCHEON
GIVEN IN HONOUR OF

LOUIS RAEMAEKERS

(the distinguished Dutch Cartoonist)

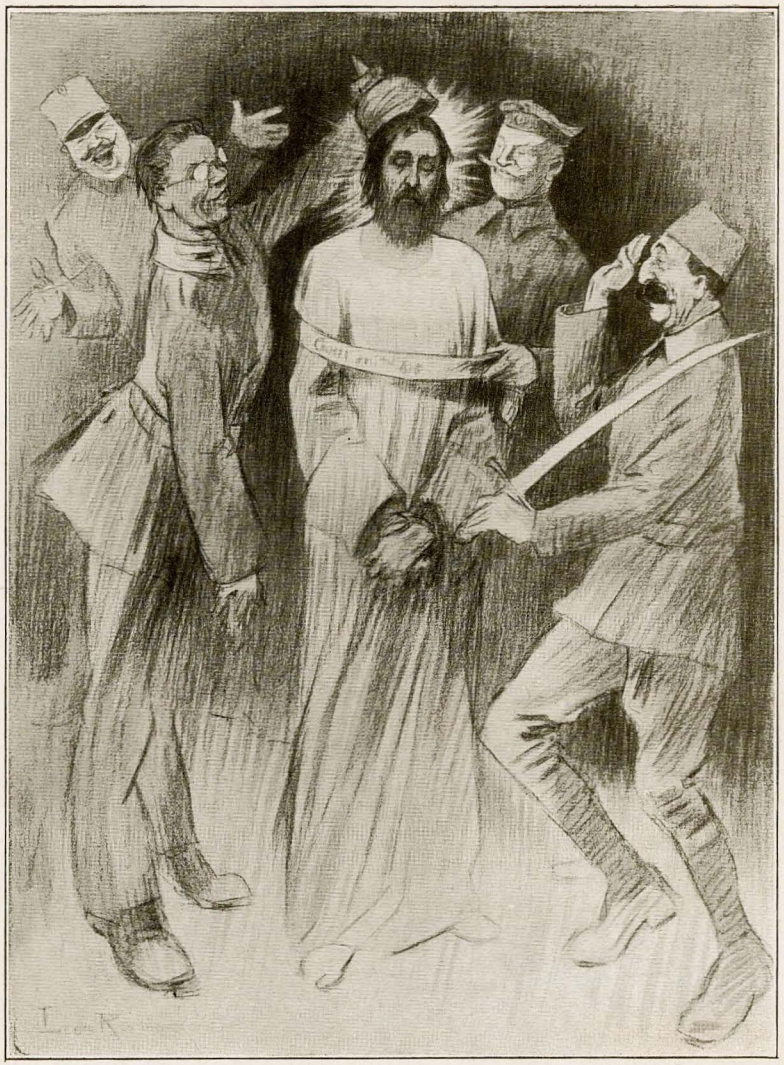

BY THE LONDON PRESS (under the auspices of the Institute of Journalists) IN APPRECIATION OF HIS BRILLIANT WORK FOR THE ALLIED CAUSE.

ROYAL HOTEL,
LONDON.

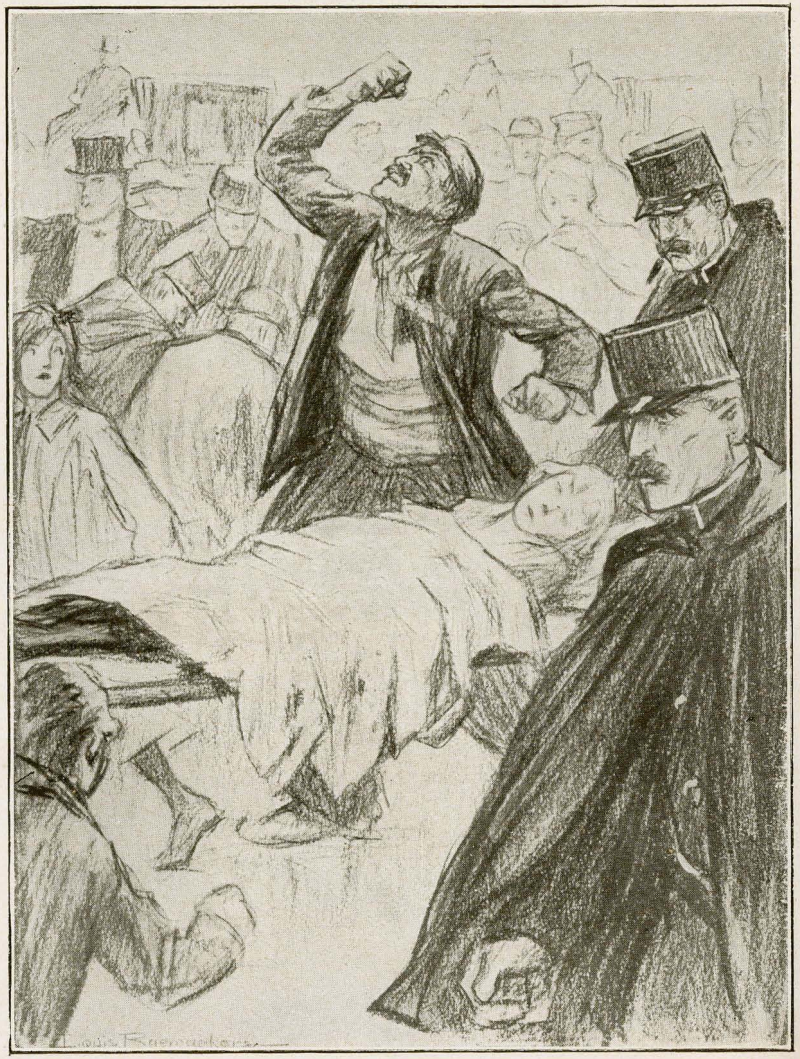

Chairman: MR. A. G. GARDINER,
President of the Institute of Journalists.

Dec. 8th, 1915.

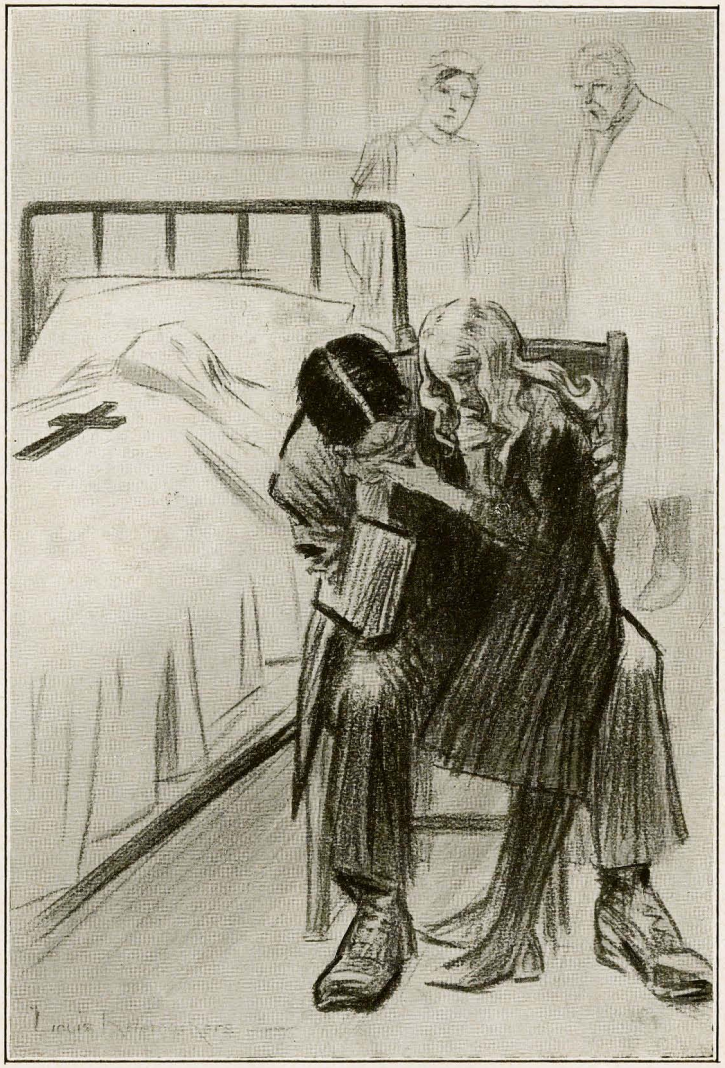

The six Cartoons are reproduced from the Amsterdam "Telegraaf." They are characteristic of Mr. Raemaeker's brilliant work.

"AND THEY BOWED THE KNEE BEFORE HIM, AND THEY MOCKED HIM."

CULTURE FROM THE AIR.

"BUT MOTHER HAD DONE NOTHING WRONG, HAD SHE, DADDY?"

"AIN'T I A LOVEABLE FELLOW?"

". . . WOMEN TO THE LEFT."

"I HAD SUCH A DELIGHTFUL DREAM—THAT THE WHOLE THING WAS NOT TRUE."