12 May 1917

TELEPHONE
1838 GERRARD.

34, HILL STREET,
BERKELEY SQUARE, W.

Dear Mrs. Raemaekers
Will you give us the great pleasure of your company at Luncheon next Wednesday
the 16th at 1.30.
My husband is home
from Egypt & would very much like to meet

Jon.

W. Lutyens, our great architect and W. Robert Hichens who write that delightful book: The Garden of Allah will both be here as well as W. Churchill Baring (brother of Lord Revelstoke)

Will you very kindly telephone as soon as you get this letter I do hope you can come.

Kindest remembrances to Mrs Raemaekers

Yrs very sincerely
Victoria Sackville

Mrs MacDonald
6 Geraldine
Eaton Square