Dear Mr. Raemaekers

Re Justice for often send cartoons to the Daily Mail for the Thursday issue. I presume for come into London on Wednesday?

It would give me very great pleasure if you could lunch here next Wednesday the 28th at 1.30.

I hope that my Daughter and her husband who works in the Foreign Office will both be here and also Sir Hugh Clifford, the ex-governor of Ceylon, a very interesting man.

I can only have three parties, having only one Parlour-maid!...

A la guerre comme a la guerre 'n'est ce pas.'

Will you very kindly telephone your Answer sheet 7.

hope will be "Yes"
I have been away
from London a good deal and I shall be away again very soon
so do try & come here
on the 28th.
Kindest remembrances
from wife & Sincerely
Victoria Sackville
